2. Association Officials

Notably directors, committee members, and staff should be aware of various rules, regulations, guidelines, programs, and expectation within the soccer playing and administrative environment; and indeed, are charged with upholding and defending the same. Failure to act properly can be tantamount to unsporting or unethical behaviour and brings the game directly into disrepute and lead to charges. - d. Where suspensions are match-based, the panel should not increase or reduce the number of matches suspended to mimic a term suspension.

The misconduct as reported may not be what a Judicial Panel ultimately issues Sanctions for.
- b. Mitigating and aggravating factors may lessen or increase the type, length and breadth of sanction. First offences are provided a sanction in accordance to the guidelines for a first offence.
- c. Where the sanctioning guidelines stipulate a minimum sanction for a given misconduct a Judicial Panel should not go below this threshold without providing for alternate sanction such as educational requirements or strong mitigating factors. Match Officials are encouraged to report on mitigating and aggravating factors.

- d. Aggravating and mitigating factors are not to be considered when deciding the accountability of the offence, only the application of the Sanction.

- h. Third offences are provided a sanction in accordance to the guidelines for a third offence; even if such offence happens immediately following the second offence. The third offence thus being further escalation, continuing dissent or prolongation and as such is aggravating.
